The McShin Foundation's 10th Annual Recovery Fest and 5th Annual KCBS Sanctioned Barbecue Cook-off

Richmond, VA—The McShin Foundation is hosting its annual Recovery Fest on September 6th, 2014 from noon until 5:00PM at Hatcher Memorial Baptist Church, Henrico, VA. As part of National Recovery Month's 25th Anniversary, this is a family event. There will be live music by Devil Elvis, Evan Barlow, and the Bitter Creek Band, guest speakers, voter registration, fun kid's activities, EZ Grill children BBQ competition, Corn Hole Tournament, vendors and so much more. There will be an open mic for any political candidates. All dignitaries and officials in the Commonwealth are invited. This event is anticipating at least 8,000 in attendance. There should be dozens of addiction service providers available. There are Richmond area restaurants participating in the barbecue cook-off. The cook-off is a nationally sanctioned event by Kansas City Barbecue Society. The winner of this event will be able to compete in BBQ competitions nationally.

McShin hosts these events in order to spread the message of hope to individuals and families who suffer with substance use disorders (SUDs). For more information on this event, contact The McShin Foundation at 804.249.1845 or visit their website at: www.mcshin.org.
