

JOHN'S NATIONWIDE CORRECTIONAL FACILITY TOUR - UPDATE!

32 down - 18 to go!

John is speaking at jails or prisons in all 50 states in an effort to reduce the stigma of addiction and raise awareness of the positive effects recovery programs can have on incarcerated individuals. He will be spreading the message of hope that recovery can provide and encourage local recovery communities to rally together to make a change.

Tour sponsored by:

WANT JOHN TO COME TO YOUR FACILITY?

Contact Alden at aldeng@mcshin.org or (804) 249-1845
for more information or scheduling!

John Shinholser is President and Co-Founder of The McShin Foundation, which he started in 2004 with his wife Carol McDaid, and Board of Directors. The McShin Foundation and its staff have been the recipients of the America Honors Recovery Award from the Johnson Institute, the Joel Hernandez Award, the National Recovery Month Event Award the Vernon Johnson Award. McShin is also featured in The Anonymous People, produced by Greg Williams, and What Is Alcoholics Anonymous?, written by Dr. Marc Galanter.

Warning : John is not trained in political correctness.